

NZ MOBILE MAMMOGRAM UNIT

Insulated air conditioned body structure integrated to a purpose built trailer chassis is designed to stringent OH&S requirements to ensure safety and comfort to all occupants and operators.

Sophisticated breast screening analysis and X-ray developing equipment, together with necessary computer linked hardware and software is installed to customer's requirements

The mobile breast screening units location supplies the 240V AC / 12V DC system required to operate the equipment, internal and external lighting, refrigeration, microwave and hot water system i.e.: Shopping centres, Bowling clubs etc.

- ||| Ample locker space located externally for stowage of operations equipment.
- ||| Internal office space can be configured to suit individual requirements
- ||| Full kitchen facilities and room provided for the comfort of operations
- ||| Two change rooms provided for the comfort of patients

These Breast Screening units may also be fitted with hydraulic or manual jack levelling systems and powered retractable awnings as options.